

That old shop..... in Stonehouse

William Pile & Co Saddler

In 1870 Shattock & Co had a shop in Gloucester and another in Stonehouse High Street.

SHATTOCK & CO.,
(Late R. VIOLE)
SADDLERS AND HARNESS AND GAITER MANUFACTURERS,
89, SOUTHGATE STREET, GLOUCESTER.
EVERY REQUISITE FOR HORSE AND STABLE KEPT IN STOCK.

In 1876 William Pile moved from Devon with his new wife to manage the saddler's shop. In 1881 his son George was born at the shop and in 1888 his daughter Alice was born there.

In 1897 they were advertising bicycles for sale or rent.

1907 - 1910 and 1923 - 1925 William Pile was a Parish Councillor.

The Saddler's shop ran from at least 1870 (Shattock's) to 1942, a total of 72 years.

By 1883 William Pile had taken over the shop. Later his son George also worked there as a saddler and harness maker. By 1911 Mr Pile retired and his son managed the shop until 1942.

Over the next 76 years the shop has been home to a variety of small businesses
