HOUSING SITES IN STONEHOUSE TOWN AREA 1559-1841 GO TO KEY

This list attempts to give outline histories of housing sites in the modern Stonehouse town area, as shown on the Stonehouse tithe map of 1839 and observed in the 1841 census. Buildings added after 1841 are not included. The town area is only half of the old parish and manor, divided in 1894.

Dates given in the properties key suggest when each property is first thought to have had an occupied house: the date 1559 indicates that the property existed in the manor survey of that year but was probably much older. Earlier histories are harder to establish due to lack of records. All histories are based on deductions from such records as survive and are always open to further research.

1558 the manor of Stonehouse was sold by the Earl of Arundel to two local clothiers, William Fowler and William Sandford.

Tenancies in the survey of SH manor 1559 were of three main kinds:

1. freehold: management and descent/sale controlled by the 'owner', not the manor, but freeholders were still obliged to follow general manorial regulations and pay a set annual 'chief rent' to the lord. This could be removed by agreement on payment of a lump sum.

2. copyhold: held from the lord for a term, usually the lives of three specified people, recorded in the manor court roll and subject to manorial rules. Could not be sold or bequeathed by the tenant, renewed by surrender in the manor court and regrant to new named lives: 'customary' for family wishes about inheritance to be respected, but not a right. Could be converted to a lease, with the lord's agreement.

3. rental 'at the will of the lord': direct rental from the manor, disposal 'customary' at lord's discretion.

1567 the manor was divided between the two owners. The Fowlers kept the main manor and continued to run it on manorial terms, although some leases were gradually introduced. The Sandfords were more willing to lease or sell their properties, which are much less visible in the manor records, although they were still subject to general manorial regulation of their surroundings.

Manorial properties normally had associated land, a small amount round the house, and the rest spread in parts among the various common fields of the manor. Smaller properties, especially those 'at will', might have little additional land, but made use of the 'lord's waste', the wide roadside 'greens' which belonged to the lord, or rented land from other tenants. Stonehouse manor did not have large areas of 'common' land.

Building on the 'waste' needed the lord's permission and was rare before the 18th century. Occasional cases in the manor court which fined such trespassers were usually a mechanism for establishing a charge or rent 'at will' for new housing, which was allowed to remain, sometimes becoming a more permanent lease.

Freehold house, closely connected to history of Ryeford Mill, property 005. Land may have been part of Paganhill manor, perhaps held 1299 by Elias Segar or Segalt, also a freeholder in SH. Land in Paganhill manor bought by Richard Fowler in 1538, property of Fowler family, appears to have been added to the SH manor estate after William 1 Fowler, son of Richard, became part owner in 1558. Thomas Sandford manor survey 1559, freeholder for parcels of land called 'Picknells in Segars'. Partition of manor 1567, this property in share of William 1 Fowler, remained part of the manor. Thomas Sandford died 1573, perhaps living at 026, enquiry held to establish rights of his son Edward Sandford as a free tenant. Court book 1577, Edward Sandford's freehold includes Pycknells land [TNA C 133/91/2; VCH Glos vol.11 p.115; GA D4289/M1, D445/T12].

House likely to have been built for Edward Sandford around the time of his marriage in 1578. Then or earlier, Sandford family had built a fulling mill on own land south of the house, see property 005.

Mill on copyhold land, closely connected to history of Ryeford Lodge, property no.004

1499-1500 manor court roll, John Gibbes alias Carpenter c1490 built a 'blade mill', for grinding edge tools, on land held from SH manor since 1486. His main direct descendants were smiths until the early 17th century, but do not appear to have lived at this mill, which may have been operated by sons or relatives [court roll not found, transcript TBGAS vol.46 p.120; GA D4289/M1].

1539 manor court roll, John Sandford of Upper Mill and Richard Gibbes of the blade mill had between them failed to maintain the road at Ryeford, which had been flooded due to Richard Gibbes making a breach in the river and diverting the water to his blade mill. This suggests that the channels shown on later maps are not all original [court roll not found, transcript TBGAS vol.46 pp. 158-160].

Manor survey 1559, Richard Gibbes, son of John, has the blade mill, reversion after him to Thomas 1 Gibbes and Thomas' son William 1 Gibbes. Partition of manor 1567, this property in share of William 1 Fowler, remained part of the manor [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12].

By c1578 or earlier the Sandford family built a fulling mill on their adjacent land, see property 004.

1581 manor court book, Thomas 1 Gibbes dead, tenement called le Millhey reverts to his son William 1 Gibbes [GA D445/M6].

1603 Fowler manor survey: William 1 Gibbes customary tenant land at Ryeford, Edward Sandford free tenant for land called Picknells, and for the house in which he lives (004) [GA D445/M13].

1610 court book William 1 Gibbes customary tenant of land on which blade mill built for lives of self, wife, son Thurston [GA D445/M3]. William 1 Gibbes died 1614, Thurston Gibbes died 1623, no direct heirs, holding perhaps taken 'in hand' by the manor and leased to the Sandfords, who then let it out. The blade mill site with a second water wheel would have provided a useful outbuilding to the fulling mill.

The following residents are thought to have lived in or around the fulling mill:

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1608-43	William 2 Dangerfield, 40-75	Tucker/fuller, married, tenant of Gibbes?
1622	Anthony Dangerfield, 18	Later clothier, single, cousin of William 2 Dangerfield

1659	William Pootelug	Clothworker? age/status unknown, lodger?
1657-65	Bartholomew Smith, 20-30	Later clothier, single, lodger?

1661 inventory for Stephen 3 Dangerfield, at 004, lists materials and cloth in the (fulling) mill and gig mill (for raising nap on cloth before shearing) [GA GDR/R8/1665/39].

Those working the mills after 1666 probably lived at other Ryeford properties.

1666-67 William 1 Halliday 'of the Ryeford', at 004, paying rent to the manor for 005, and for 'my ground in his mill close' [GA D445/E4].

1784 Mary Brown paying chief (freehold) manor rent [GA D445/T17].

Map of SH made 1803, and linked survey, 1804, show whole 'Mill Hay' as one piece surrounded by river and back brook, owner Robert Sandford: manor apparently sold west half to Sandford [GA D1347 maps, P263/MI9].

Partition of manor 1567, this property in share of William 1 Fowler, remained part of the manor. Richard son of William Bence tenant from 1592 but neglected his holdings and had apparently demolished the Hyrth Hey house by 1605, both holdings taken back 'into the lord's hands' when he died in 1624, but tenancy perhaps allowed to continue for his daughter's life [GA D445/T12, M3].

Daniel 1 Fowler, lord of the manor, leased both Bence's holdings in 1624 to his son Stephen 1 Fowler, who let out the land to others. In 1647 Stephen formally passed the manor lease of both properties to his brother Nathaniel 1 Fowler, who lived elsewhere, and his heirs. Nathaniel probably rebuilt the house after the death of Mary Morse in 1651 [GA D5869/6].

Nathaniel 3 Fowler, gentleman and clothier, died childless in 1781. The original manor tenancy had been augmented over the years with freehold lands, for which a chief (freehold) rent was still being paid to the manor in 1784. In his will Nathaniel 3 Fowler named many cousins, one of whom, Thomas Skipp, became the new owner of his SH property. Mary Hitch [Dimock] died in 1789, but may have left 013 in 1781, as Thomas Skipp was a manor resident by 1784 [TNA PROB 11/1085/164, GA D445/M11, T17].

1553 Thomas Gabb, father of Thomas 1 Gabb, held at his death this copyhold, with other holdings in Oldends: his will proved 1554 left 'all the goodes in my howse or howses movable or unmovable,' not otherwise bequeathed, to his widow Joan. Manor survey 1559 Joan Gabb tenant of this copyhold by grant made 1553, with six acres spread about in various fields, for lives of herself, then her grandchildren Katherine Cadell and Nicholas 1 Gabb. Partition of manor 1567, this property in share of William 1 Sandford [GA GDR/R8/1554/114, D4289/M1, D445/T12].

1556 Thomas Brown in manor court jury, 1558 married a Joan Gabb in Painswick, possibly the widow or other relative: 1724 this property said to be 'formerly called Brown's House'. Thomas Brown perhaps resident before Henry 1 Gabb: no daughter Joan or son Henry in will of Thomas Gabb 1554, manor court records do not survive between 1558 and 1567 [GA D340a/M23, D445/T12, D5869/9].

William 1 Gibbes may have held this tenancy from the Sandfords 1567-91 in right of his wife, Katherine Cadell, until her death. After death of Nicholas 1 Gabb 1615 the Sandfords probably took it 'in hand' and converted it to a lease.
Anselm Sandford of LS, son of William 1 Sandford, held his father's manor share until his death in 1611, followed by his son William 2 Sandford, who died in 1632.

William 2 Sandford's SH estates, listed at his death in 1632, passed to his son William 3 Sandford, who apparently settled or sold them before his death in 1694, as his will and probate inventory contained only goods. John 1 Elliott probably bought freehold of 017 in about 1680 [TNA IPM C 142/513/17; GA GDR/R8/48, inventory GDR/R8/3].

John 2 Andrews sold 017, 'formerly called Brown's House', that same year 1724 to John 2 Elliott, son-in-law of John 1 Elliott and Mary Wetmore. He then built and lived in 016 and apparently sold the rest of 017 to John 2 Davis, who let it c1731 [GA D5869/9].

The Robbins family lived elsewhere and sublet. Tenant of the freehold group in manor survey 1559 Richard Robbins alias Bocher, brother of John. Partition of manor 1567, freehold group in share of William 1 Fowler, tenant still Richard Robbins alias Bocher [GA D2957/289/18, 19, 22, 25-38; D4289/M1, D445/T12].

This property built about 1779 as an extension to freehold property 032, 4 Burdett Road, by its owner Samuel 4 Apperley. He died in 1785 without a will, then gentleman of MV, administration granted to some of his nieces and nephews. Both properties held by executors of Samuel 4 Apperley until 1795, when all passed to John 1 Leech on his marriage to Mary Baron, another niece of Samuel 4 Apperley [GA GDR/R8/1785/86, land tax].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1779-95	William Sitlington, 55-70	Farmer, later hawker, married, tenant of Apperley and executors

1818-23	John Woodward, 26-33	Labourer, son-in-law of Charles 1 Russell
1818-19	Elizabeth Russell, 29-30	First wife of John Woodward

1820 John 1 Leech died at 144. His will, made 1817 before he left 031, left to his wife Mary Baron the house he was then living in (031), and three adjoining tenements (032). Mary Leech, widow, married John 5 Clark in 1823. He became owner in her right and they returned to live at 031 [GA GDR/R8/1820/164, land tax].

1615 manor court book William 4 Dangerfield has encroached on the 'lord's waste' at his land called Padwell, 1620 has built part of his new house at lower end of Padwell on 'lord's waste' without licence, ordered to remove the wall at S end and corner of SE end. He had apparently built a house for his son William 5 Dangerfield on land attached to his leased freehold 015 but had also encroached on the roadside. He would have been excused the manorial encroachment in return for a fine, also seems to have bought the freehold of 032 from the Sandfords [GA D445/M3].

1629 William 4 Dangerfield sold his house, orchard and ground called Padwell to George Smith, later a fuller of EB, who in his will made and proved 1663 left it to his brother John's grandson Thomas Smith of Trowbridge: this may have been a mortgage arrangement [GA GDR/R8/1663/65].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1615-54	William 5 Dangerfield, 17-56	Small farmer? married c 1645, son of William 4 Dangerfield, tenant of Smith from 1629?

1645-54	Mary 1 Dangerfield, 25-35	Wife of William 5 Dangerfield

William 5 Dangerfield died in 1654, leaving young children. His brother Edward 1 Dangerfield at some point apparently bought the house back from the Smith family. Manor court books record that he had taken an 'inmate', a lodger, in 1675-76, and that in 1683-83 he had created a cottage with an inmate, perhaps a division for his son Edward. In 1685 he had encroached further onto the 'waste', perhaps extending his roadside frontage [GA D445/M5, M8, M14].

1655-93	Edward 1 Dangerfield, 45-83	Clothworker/fuller, married, brother of William 5 Dangerfield, tenant of Smith, then owner?

1663-93	Edward 3 Dangerfield, 1-30	Clothworker? son of Edward 1 Dangerfield

1693 will of Edward 1 Dangerfield: left 'all that part' of the house in which he was living, with the orchard, garden and pasture, to his wife Mary for life (died 1699), then to his daughter Jane, then to her children by her husband John Warner. If there were no such children, John Warner had life rights, then the heirs were his grandson Edward Field, or if he died a minor then his grandson Samuel Apperley. His son Edward 3 Dangerfield was left money. Everything not disposed of was left to his wife but presumably returned to the family at her death [GA GDR/R8/1693/139].

1748-72	Anne Gabb, 42-66	Second wife/widow of Edward Field, life tenant

1737 Jane (Dangerfield), widow Danford, buried SH: next owner Edward Field.

1756 will of Edward Field: left the house where he lived, with the garden and orchard, to his wife for life, then to his nephew Edward Field, son of his brother William However, by 1758 church rate lists suggest that the owner of the whole property was Samuel 4 Apperley, son of the other grandson named by Edward 1 Dangerfield. This may reflect a family agreement over the will of Edward 1 Dangerfield, as Edward Field had no direct heirs. The property may have been extended to the north about this time [GA GDR/R8/1756/147, P316/CW2/1].

1757-87	Hopeful 1 Jones, 34-64	Carrier, married, tenant of Apperley

This perhaps on condition that he would live in a house on it and use the rest of his land, 046, as his adjoining timber yard [SHG private deeds].

Wayfarer Cottage and Fernleigh built together as one. Poll books 1832-41, Henry Harrison (Wayfarer Cottage) has vote for freehold house 045 occupied by James Ravenhill 1832-35, then by Samuel Sims 1836-43 (Fernleigh) [GA poll books East].

1791 John 2 Harmer of 026 bought land formerly part of the Sandford family estate, including a large field bordering both the south side of the High Street, east of property 174, and the west side of Cross Lane, later Regent Street. 1822 his grandson Thomas Harmer Sheppard, gentleman of Clifton, Bristol, began to sell plots along both the High Street and Cross Lane [GA D846/III/20, land tax 1826-27].

1828 draft sale agreement for 050 Thomas Harmer Sheppard to John Jenner of Elmore, butcher, amended December 1828 to John Joel Tanner of Gloucester innkeeper (neither of these sales happened): part Hoggs Ground, area 58 perches. Adjoining on NE land of Sheppard 'sold or agreed to be sold' to Thomas 1 Skelton [699], on SW land of Sheppard 'intended to be used as a road'. Tanner right to use road next to Barnard's buildings [051] for ever, to keep in repair for own use, fix gate next to turnpike road (Cross Lane), Sheppard to keep gate fixed at back.

1831 piece of Hoggs Ground 050, area 58 perches, sold by Sheppard to Walter Cadogan, reserving road access through to rest of Hoggs Ground behind, adjoining on SW side to land of John Barnard. Anthony Holbrow bought rest of Hoggs Ground from Sheppard 1836, including right of road access: agreement reached, Holbrow released his interest to Cadogan for a consideration (1839 Holbrow bought 047, created new road access through to field) [GA D1347/acc1347/l/13 Sheppard and D1347/acc1347/l/6 Jones, schedule of deeds 1875].

1534 this property believed to be house and Mondayland (small area of land) granted by the manor to William Bremiard, son of John, as a reversion, tenancy subject to the 'will of the lord', after the deaths of John and his wife Johane, perhaps c1550.This house probably timber framed, stood on yard area on north side of later house, oriented to old road like 039, see notes 1827-36 below [GA D445/M2].

1559 manor survey, this house and about 4 acres of land seem to have become part of the tenancy of Nicholas 1 Dangerfield of 094, together with properties 094 and 007, for lives of himself, his wife Katherine and son Nicholas, who died 1567. William Bremiard, also called 'alias' Tomkins, may have continued to live in the house as a subtenant [GA D4289/M1].

Partition of manor 1567, this whole property in share of William 1 Sandford, taken out of direct manor control [GA D445/T12].

Nicholas 1 Dangerfield died 1570, life tenancy may have passed to his widow Katherine, who died in 1606. These properties converted to leases by early 17C.

1799 freehold estates of Nathaniel Watts, bankrupt, put up for auction: properties 053-54, Upper Mills, bought by James Uley Harris, clothier of Uley. He appears to have passed them to his son, James Lloyd Harris, perhaps on his marriage in 1800. James Lloyd Harris sold 053-54 in 1803 to John 2 Brown, together with a newly erected property on the meadow to the south of the mills. This building (052) is marked on the SH map of 1803 but not described in the survey of 1804: called 'a messuage', but probably always at least two dwellings, perhaps 'gardener's cottage' extension on south end: up to four occupying households at first, some occupiers suggested, others unknown [GA P263/MI9, D1347 maps, D6416/2,5].

Stonehouse Upper Mill, known as Corneham Mill in the 16th century and Sandford's in the 18th, was granted by William of Eu in 1085 to Gloucester Abbey; Richard Mill was the miller between 1507 and 1517 when Corneham Mill, comprising a fulling mill and a corn mill, was leased by the abbey to Henry Betts. From 1525 the mill was leased to John Sandford; he purchased the freehold in 1544 from Gloucester Corporation, which had acquired the mill with other possessions of Gloucester Abbey in 1542. John Sandford … bought LS Priory in 1549. Later he moved to Gloucester and in 1554 granted Corneham Mill to his son William, who bought SH manor jointly with William Fowler in 1558. The mill then descended with the Sandford's estate at SH [VCH Glos vol.10 pp.276-84].

House (053, site of unit 7) adjoining the mill (054) regarded as 'manor house' for Sandford share of manor lands after partition 1567: this list attempts to identify the main households who occupied it. There appear to have been other workers living in the Upper Mills complex during the 17th century, some perhaps in parts of property 053, but who are listed under the mill (054) [GA D445/T12].

1623-94	William 3 Sandford, 21-65	Gentleman, widowed 1688, son of William 2 Sandford, owner from 1632

Court book 1622 William 2 Sandford gentleman presented 'for taking in Richard Hopton to be his tenant and not giving bond'. 1632 William 2 Sandford died: by settlements made 1620-31 left his SH house and mills to his son William 3 Sandford for 60 years subject to provision for wife Katherine for her lifetime (remarried James Stephens of EN, burial not found), then to son John and his heirs, confirmed in his will proved 1633 [IPM TNA C 142/513/17, GA GDR/R8/1633/145, D445/M3].

1672 William 3 Sandford taxed for 8 hearths [TNA E179/247/14].

1694 will William 3 Sandford, personal goods only: estates still bound by father's settlements, but family wills suggest further settlement to John Sandford of LS not implemented for this property, Upper Mills remained with descendants of William 3 Sandford [GA GDR/R8/1694/48, inventory 1694/3].

1638 - 1727	William 4 Sandford, 1-89	Gentleman, widowed 1678, son of William 3 Sandford, owner 1694 by family agreement?

1709-11	Richard 1 Cole, 20-25	Shearman, single, lodger?
1709-14	Samuel Bower, 32-37	Clothworker? single, son of Henry Bower, lodger?

1731 sale William 5 Sandford of SH gentleman to brother Thomas Sandford of London, merchant: mansion house in which he dwelt, corn and fulling mills adjoining and lands. Copy will 1743 (not found) of Thomas Sandford haberdasher of London, wife Elizabeth authorised to sell estates bought from late brother William 5 Sandford [GA D445/T13].

New owners not clear: church rate lists suggest 1758 Mr Highmore [probably of London] or his tenant, probably Ambrose Reddall, 1761 Ambrose Reddall as owner, although he had moved to part of the manor house at 077 by 1772. Land tax records suggest gentlemen tenants of Ambrose Reddall at 053 in turn Haycock and Simpson, then mill operations were managed for Reddall 1784-91 by Henry 1 Eycott of 080 through his stepson William Stanton [GA P316/CW2/1, D445/T15, land tax 1778-90].

1739-82	John 1 Pitt, 31-74	Clothdresser, married 1743-77, tenant of Sandford, Highmore and Reddall?

1791 Nathaniel Watts owner of 'late Reddalls', occupied by Eycott: believed to have come to SH 1793, bankrupt 1798 [GA land tax, D6416/2,5].

1799 estates of Nathaniel Watts, bankrupt, put up for auction: properties 053-54, Upper Mills, bought by James Uley Harris, clothier of Uley. He appears to have passed them to his son, James Lloyd Harris, perhaps on his marriage in 1800 [GA D6416/2,5].

James Lloyd Harris sold 053-054 in 1803 to John Brown and Sons, owners in the 1804 survey. On the death of John 2 Brown in 1818 they were mortgaged by his executors to Edward Davies of EB, brother of Robert Stephens Davies [GA D6416/2,5, P263/MI9].

Harris or Brown may have rebuilt the house: adjoining the mill on the east, presumably on the site of the old house of the Sandfords is a stone house of c.1800, which had a classical portico. Formerly known as the Rookery, the house was occupied by R. S. Davies in the mid-19th century [VCH Glos vol.10 pp.276-84].

Robert Stephens Davies owner/occupier 1839-41, also held Lower Mills (063) from 1817 [GA tithe award SH 1839, D9125/1/10703, census 1841; London and County Directory, Holden 1811, Vol 3; Directory of Gloucestershire, Pigot 1830, 1842].

There appear to have been workers living in the Upper Mills complex during the 17th century, some perhaps in parts of property 053, but this list attempts to distinguish them from the owners in 053. 1694 will of William 3 Sandford, personal goods only: estates still bound by father's settlements, but family wills suggest further settlement to John Sandford of LS not implemented, Upper Mills remained with descendants of William 3 Sandford [GA GDR/R8/1694/48, inventory 1694/3].

18th century fewer apparent residents, perhaps housed in 053: additional workers coming in.

1731 sale William 5 Sandford of SH gentleman to brother Thomas Sandford of London, merchant: mansion house in which he dwelt (053), corn and fulling mills adjoining and lands (054). Copy will 1743 (not found) of Thomas Sandford haberdasher of London, wife Elizabeth authorised to sell estates bought from late brother William 5 Sandford [GA D445/T13].

New owners not clear: church rate lists suggest 1758 Mr Highmore [probably of London] or his tenant, probably Ambrose Reddall, 1761 Ambrose Reddall as owner, although he had moved to part of the manor house at 077 by 1772. Land tax records suggest gentlemen tenants of Ambrose Reddall at 053 in turn Haycock and Simpson, then mill operations were managed for Reddall 1784-91 by Henry 1 Eycott of 080 through his stepson William Stanton [GA P316/CW2/1, D445/T15, land tax 1778-90].

1791 Nathaniel Watts owner of 'late Reddalls', occupied by Eycott: believed to have come to SH 1793, bankrupt 1798 [GA land tax, D6416/2,5].

James Lloyd Harris sold 053-054 in 1803 to John Brown and Sons, owners in the 1804 survey. On the death of John 2 Brown in 1818 they were mortgaged by his executors to Edward Davies of EB, brother of Robert Stephens Davies [GA D6416/2,5, P263/MI9].

The Davies family may have leased Upper Mills before 1818: directory 1811 Davies Beard & Davies clothiers SH [London and County Directory, Holden 1811, Vol 3].

Workforce expanded towards factory production, some of their employees may be shown in manorial lists for 1814 and 1818, perhaps housed in the mills complex: tithe map 1839 suggests range of inhabited buildings next to main house 053, added after 1803 map [GA D1347 maps, D445/M11].

1558 Richard Watkyns yeoman leased his freehold held of the manor of SH to Humphrey Osborne and his sons William and Thomas Osborne: property remained in possession of Watkyns family. 1579 William Watkyns of Alkerton EN passed house, 2 closes and 6 acres land, leased to Humphrey Osborne, to Hugh Watkyns of the same, and his heirs [GA D149/T756-759].

Richard Watkyns not in manor survey 1559, house probably included under Humphrey Osborne's freehold of Bridgend Mill (059). Partition of manor 1567 Richard Watkyns freeholder for house 'in the Bridgend', in share of William 1 Sandford [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12].

1597 Hugh Watkyns of Alkerton EN, his son William and wife Judith, sold to Stephen 2 Dangerfield, weaver of SH, property lately occupied by John 1 Osborne as described in 1579. Stephen 2 Dangerfield immediately leased it to his brother Richard 1 Dangerfield of 051 for seven years, perhaps to cover the purchase costs: Stephen living in the house in 1606 [GA D149/T760, T765; D445/M3].

1558 this freehold held of SH manor by Sir John Gifford, died 1563, main estates Hampshire but also held manors of Weston under Edge and Norton in Gloucestershire: will providing for his widow, 5 daughters, and minority of his eventual heir his son George [TNA PROB 11/46/230, GA D4289/M1, Visitation of Glos 1623].

1567 partition of manor, freehold of (late) John Gifford in share of William 1 Sandford, but 'rented in fee simple', does not seem to have been considered part of Sandford estate [GA D445/T12].

Sir George Gifford 1591 in royal disfavour, mounting disgrace and debt, obliged to sell estates, died 1613 [GIFFORD, George (1552-1613), of Weston-under-Edge, Glos. | History of Parliament Online].

Feet of fines 1591 Richard Overbury gentleman [not placed, perhaps relative of Nicholas Overbury of Bourton on the Hill, father of Sir Thomas Overbury] acquired from George Giffard/Gifford: house, barn, water mill, dovecote, garden, orchard, 113 acres varied land, woods, and common pasture in SH. Small water mill probably on NW side of house, fed by stream out to west from spring on site of 1,3,5,7 Crescent Road, later became dyehouse. Land spread across the manor, much gradually sold or let to others by successive freeholders. First tenants conjectural [TNA CP 25(2)/145/1883/4].

William 2 Andrews of Bridgend died, will 1687: left house where he lived, with all property in SH and KS, to his grandson William 1 Clutterbuck and heirs: has apparently gained the freehold from Wright or another [TNA PROB 11/388/441].

House rebuilt by William 1 Clutterbuck, datestone 1691: does not appear to have been operating own dyeworks. Will of William 1 Clutterbuck made 1697 proved 1698, in effect left all to his nephew Jasper Clutterbuck of KS (died 1752), then to his son, also Jasper (died 1782 KS): reference to parlour, hall, kitchen including musket and long gunn, buttery, parlour chamber, hall chamber, buttery chamber, closet, garret, brewhouse, barn, also 'old house' with best chamber, hall and kitchen: old building still present, perhaps on site of later 18C-19C service wing [TNA PROB 11/445/158].

1767 Nathaniel Poole died: Jasper Clutterbuck of KS (died 1782) apparently sold 062 to John Elliott, cloth factor of London, his second cousin through Nash family, who added it to his estate at 057: in church rates 1769 John Elliott Esq has ‘Mr Clutterbuck’s’ [GA P316/CW2/1].

John Elliott of London may have been an occasional visitor: in 1773 he was having a mahogany door made for his parlour, and had built new stables at 061, later Bridgend Farm [The Clutterbuck Diary 1773 (Stroud, 1935) p.6].

Lower Mill is believed to have been the SH manor corn mill.

The 16th and 17th century history of Lower Mill (063) outlined in VCH Glos vol.10, pp.276-84, is now believed to relate to Bond's Mill [TBGAS vol 118 (2000), pp.123-132 bg118123.pdf (bgas.org.uk)].

16th century hard to know who operating mill, not specified in manor survey 1559 or partition 1567: 1570s William 1 Fowler as lord of manor named as one of common (corn) millers, gaps in manor court books. 1608 Edward Daniel fined as one of common millers: perhaps related to Edward Daniel, tucker of KS aged 50-60, in muster roll 1608 [GA D445/M7; Smith].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1606-14	Edward Daniel, 25-35	Miller, married, tenant of Fowler
1614-25	William 1 Smith, 35-45	Miller? married, tenant of Fowler
1614-25	Bridget Jorden al Hammant, 29-40	Wife of William 1 Smith
1619-24	Thomas 1 Chapman, 33-38	Miller? married, tenant of William 1 Smith

William 1 Smith had a freehold in SH, which had been thought to relate to the mill, but was more probably linked to lands belonging to his wife. The proposed identity of this couple has been revised since 2000. William may have been a tenant or lessee of the manor for the mill, worked by his tenants such as Thomas Chapman, for whom he was fined in 1622. Mill apparently then bought from the manor by either William 1 or William 2 Lye. [TBGAS vol 118 (2000), pp.123-132 bg118123.pdf (bgas.org.uk), GA D445/M3].

1630-50	William 1 Lye, 30-50	Miller, married, owner?

1662-86	Mary Lye, 1-24	Wife of Henry 2 Bower 1686

1672 William 2 Lye taxed for 3 hearths, 1683 owned his house and mill, which in his will were to go to his eldest son William 3 Lye, who seems to have begun cloth production at the mill, assisted by Jeremiah Snow [TNA E179/247/14, GA GDR/R8/1683/174].

1665 - 1710	William 3 Lye, 1-45	Shearman, single, owner to 1701
1683-86	Jeremiah Snow, 25-30	Clothworker, married, tenant of Lye?

1701 John 1 Arundel bought house, fulling mill and corn mill with adjacent land at 063 from Temperance Lye and her sons William 3 Lye and Thomas 2 Lye. There were lodgers and/or mill workers living in or around the mill house from this time onwards. Most of them, and others unknown, would have operated the mills for the benefit of outworkers bringing cloth to be finished. Most would have been single and only stayed for a short time [GA D1815/box 489 Davies].

1701-21	John 1 Arundel, 40-60	Clothier, married, owner
1701-27	John 2 Arundel, 4-30	Clothworker? single, son of John 1 Arundel, owner 1721

1725	Anselm 2 Smith, 21	Clothworker? single, lodger?
1727-64	William Arundel, 22-59	Gentleman, single, son of John 1 Arundel, owner 1727
1729	Robert 1 Duck, 25	Clothworker? single, lodger?
1729	John 1 Fords, 27	Clothworker? single, lodger?

1764 William Arundel sold the property bought in 1701 to William 2 Hill, clothier of SH. 1781 William 2 Hill bought further land, between mill and newly built canal, from Ball lords of manor [GA D1815/box 489 Davies].

1772-74	William Cosham, 23-25	Tailor, single, lodger?
1772	Samuel Silvey, 23	Clothworker? single, lodger?
1768-72	Samuel 2 Webb, 25-30	Clothworker? married, tenant of Hill?
1768-72	Hester Clark, 24-28	Wife of Samuel 2 Webb

1784 William 2 Hill, in his will left mill to trustees, including his brother-in-law, William Hopkins Merrick, clothier of EB, for his son Edward Hill, then aged 10 [TNA PROB 11/1119/380].

1795 Edward Hill full owner from age 21, rebuilt mill complex, invested in Nutshell property 067-068, but fell into debt, by 1807 sold mill complex back to his uncle William Hopkins Merrick. Edward Hill may have lived at Nutshell Cottage (067) from 1803, by 1811 regained ownership of it and lived there until his death in 1816. Mill occupied 1807-08 by John Strange and others unknown [GA land tax].

1807 certificate issued to Thomas Cooper [clothier of Rodborough] and others, allowing protestant dissenter worship in 'a large upper room in the north east of the clothing factory in the occupation of Messrs Cooper and Wathen' [GA GDR 334B].

1808 William Hopkins Merrick Esquire of KS died, memorial with brother Thomas at Weston under Penyard, Herefordshire: will, property in SH bought from nephew Edward Hill left to trustees, to be sold for benefit of Edward's children, Edward Hill small personal allowance, nothing for his debts [TNA PROB 11/1487/106].

Nutshell Bridge over canal built 1778 [Nutshell Bridge and Buildings - Stroudwater History].

1784 William 2 Hill, owner of Lower Mill (063) died, in his will left the mill and estate to trustees, including his brother-in-law, William Hopkins Merrick, clothier of EB, to hold for his son Edward Hill, who was then aged ten [TNA PROB 11/1119/380].

A warehouse on the site of Nutshell House (068) was first built c1792 by or in name of Edward Hill, then aged 18, owner under trust of Lower Mills, full owner 1795, but this warehouse was demolished by 1803 as it encroached onto canal company land [Hugh Conway Jones, Cracking the Nutshell, Stonehouse History Group Journal-Issue-10-final-Feb-2023-website.pdf].

Edward Hill built a cottage (067) in 1803 and a new warehouse (068) on the other side of the bridge by 1805, on land leased from the canal company, which he bought in 1805. It is likely that the tunnel under the road connecting the two properties was constructed at this time [Stroudwater Canal Company records GA D1180, Home - Stroudwater History]

Edward Hill rebuilt the mill complex as well as investing in the Nutshell property, but fell into debt, by 1807 sold mill complex back to his uncle William Hopkins Merrick. Edward Hill may have lived at the cottage (067) from 1803, by 1811 regained ownership of it and lived there until his death in 1816. It then returned to the Hopkins Merrick trustees, a caretaker perhaps installed [GA land tax].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1803-16	Edward Hill, 39-52	Clothier, married, owner
1817-26	John Wallis, 22-31	Servant, single, tenant of trustees?

1819 sale particulars for Lower Mill estate mention a newly erected substantial house in an unfinished state near the mill, which appears to be a conversion in progress of the warehouse into a house (068) [The Courier 12 January 1819].

The Davies family bought all the Lower Mill property in 1826 and rented out this house and cottage as one dwelling, connected by the tunnel, to Thomas 3 White, then Edwin Hoare. The tunnel remained and evidence in the cottage of a kitchen and servant's bell suggest that the main tenant lived in the house and his housekeeper or servants lived in the cottage connected by the tunnel. Names of these servants are unknown [GA land tax].

1839-41 owner Robert Stephens Davies, tenant Edwin Hoare (living at 068) [GA tithe award SH 1839, D9125/1/10703; census 1841].

Stonehouse manor was sold in December 1558 by the Earl of Arundel to William 1 Fowler and William 1 Sandford and was surveyed in early 1559, without including the home farm, the 'demesne'. The two owners partitioned the manor in 1567, but the main manor lordship, including the manor house 077, remained with the Fowler family. The home farm lands were held in 1567 by James 1 Fowler, perhaps at 167, from his brother William, whose main concern was in cloth (see 080).

The 1559 manor house may have been the 'Old Hall' recorded in 1687, thought to have stood near the church, on the site of 076. When Danel Fowler built a new manor house in 1601 Old Hall was perhaps used as workers' lodgings or barns. It was restored and used as the manor farmhouse in the late 17th century, but then again became workers' housing or farm buildings. The 1601 house was the main farmhouse during the 18th century, although an apartment was kept for visiting owners or their tenants. Some resident servants or estate workers are also suggested, although their identity and placement are often uncertain [GA D445/T8, T12, T13; D4289/M1, D445/L9].

1647 Stephen 1 Fowler, son and heir of Daniel 1 Fowler, settled 077 and the manor estate on his daughter Mary Fowler and Thomas 1 Smith on their marriage, agreement confirmed 1655. Manor not mentioned in his will [GA D445/T12, GDR/R8/1671/141]. Stephen 1 Fowler may have delegated his home affairs because he was active in the parliamentarian cause during the 1640s [Warmington, A.R., Civil War, Interregnum and Restoration in Gloucestershire, 1640-72 (RHS, 1997), p.92].

1686 Thomas 2 Smith buried SH: will left to his widow Elizabeth life tenancy of 077 manor house and surrounding gardens, manor estate in trust for his daughter Mary (C 1675 SH) to be shared with the child then expected by Elizabeth Roberts, if a daughter (Fowler Smith, daughter of Thomas 2 Smith, C 1687 SH). Edward Smith of North Nibley one of trustees. Will did not specify what to happen if one of the sisters died [TNA PROB 11/384/52].

1696 John Ball, Blackwell Hall cloth factor of London, married Mary Smith by licence in London: legal case brought to examine administration of estate by Elizabeth Roberts, widow Smith, who let 077 to tenants. She lived mainly at her own property in Haresfield, but in 1697 was 'living with my present husband at Nibley', and 'forced to send a servant to look after' 077, which then vacant. 1710 Edward Smith was her 'late' husband. Edward Smith Esquire, buried 1700 North Nibley, was one of Thomas 1 Smith's trustees, a widower who possibly made a late marriage, however no record of such a marriage has been found, and his will made 1699 proved 1700 makes no provision for a wife. 1701 Fowler Smith buried Haresfield, will proved 1702 left her property not otherwise bequeathed to her mother Elizabeth Roberts. 1704 George Smith of North Nibley, son of Edward, 'cousin and heir of Fowler Smith', sold her share of Stonehouse manor to John Ball. Court appointed William Marshall agent for John and Mary Ball, he managed estate alone 1702-1707, and partly 1707-1710, 'attending in London very many times about the same'. Madam Elizabeth Smith buried Haresfield 1721 [GA D445/T14, D445/L9; TNA PROB 11/458/218, PROB 11/463/104].

These case papers show that from 1687 Elizabeth had repaired the 'tenement called the Old Hall' to be used as a farmhouse by John 1 Apperley: may have been the original manor house, rescued from disrepair, thought to have stood nearer the church. John 1 Apperley moved to King's Stanley c1714. Samuel 2 Apperley moved into the Court on his marriage 1712 as farmer and caretaker for the Ball family, other farmers followed. Old Hall may have been workers' accommodation during 18th century.

1686-93	Robert Herbert, 30-35	Gentleman? married, tenant of Smith
1691	Oliver Sheppard, 50	Gentleman? married, tenant of Smith?

1703 Mary Ball (Smith) buried SH: her husband John Ball, cloth factor and gentleman of London, will proved 1706 left manor of SH, of late wife Mary, with Fowler Smith's interest bought by him from George Smith, to his son John Ball, in default to his daughter Mary, but if neither had heirs half to go to his brother Levi, other half to his brother Samuel and heirs [GA D445/T14, TNA PROB 11/487/208].

John Ball junior, gentleman of London, captain in first foot guards: owner and lord of manor from 1706, buried SH 1729, 'much lamented', probably a frequent visitor. His will left manor of SH in trust, to uncle Levi Ball for life, then to sons of cousin Robert Ball (C 1715 London son of Samuel Ball).
1729-39 Levi Ball may have visited [TNA PROB 11/631/372].

1737-66	Holliday Mitchell, 35-64	Labourer? single, lodger?

1739 Levi Ball merchant died London: will made 1738 proved 1739, personal bequests to nephews Samuel and Robert, no reference to SH manor. Robert Ball, gentleman, tenant of the Ebworth estate in Painswick by 1744, bought it 1755, sold it 1766: buried 1766 SH, 'lord of this manour'. Under terms of will of John Ball, 1729, he held SH manor for his son Ingram Ball (C 1752 Painswick). 1751 his marriage settlement described Court as mainly let to Mary Apperley, a small apartment kept for the visiting owner. Appears to have divided his time between Painswick and SH: children C in SH, Levi 1761, Harriet 1764 [TNA PROB 11/699/363, VCH Glos Vol 11 pp.65-70; GA D445/T13].

1740 Samuel 2 Apperley died: 077 let to his widow Mary Lambert, tenant of Ball to 1771, then Samuel 4 Apperley, still tenant of part manor farm 1772-77 although subletting [GA D445/T13, T15].

There may have been a mill on this site since the 15th century. 1542 the Earl of Arundel, then lord of Stonehouse manor, leased to Richard Fowler, his wife Margery and son William 1 Fowler for their lives, the New Mill, containing both grist (corn) and cloth fulling mills. Richard Fowler, a clothier, probably lived at More Hall WP until his death in 1560, when his widow seems to have moved to 080. The mill may have been operated by her son Henry, clothier of SH, who died in 1565, making her his executor. The manor was sold in December 1558 by the Earl of Arundel to William 1 Fowler and William 1 Sandford of 053 and was surveyed in early 1559, without including the home farm, the 'demesne', or this mill. The two owners partitioned the manor in 1567, this mill then being included in the Fowler share, held with about 15 acres of land by Margery Fowler, widow, and adjoining her house. The original mill stood on the site of the south wheelhouse, with the house south-east of it, between the streams, on the site of Frome House (2026) [GA D294/6-7, D445/T8, T12; D4289/M1; TBGAS vol 118 (2000), pp.123-132 bg118123.pdf (bgas.org.uk)].

Will of Margery Fowler proved 1579: left her leases to William 1 Fowler for life, then to whichever of his children might be occupying her house [GA GDR/R8/1579/111]. William 1 Fowler may have run the mill from 077, with his son Henry 2 Fowler once he was adult: William's will proved 1598/99 required that all his mother's legacies should be fulfilled [GA GDR/R8/1598/194].

Will of Henry 2 Fowler, gentleman of Deerhurst, proved 1630: had leased his house and mills in SH to Samuel 1 Halliday in 1626 for 21 years, after which 080 to pass to his daughters Sarah, Abigail and Alice, part of a family settlement. Stephen 1 Fowler a witness to the will. One of Henry's executors his son-in-law John Jesser of EB, who had married his daughter Sarah 1628 EN and then moved to Frocester, where Sarah died 1639. Samuel 1 Halliday's lease expired 1647, when 080 seems by agreement to have reverted to the manor, then leased to John Jesser for 31 years. He sublet it to his brother-in-law William 3 Mill, who probably took over the manor lease after John Jesser died at Frocester 1663. Some resident workmen are also suggested, identity and placement often uncertain [TNA PROB 11/157/319, GA D445/T12].

William 4 Mill taxed for 7 hearths 1672, manor tenant of mill 1674: lease expired 1678, next tenant John 1 Bond [TNA E179/247/14, GA D445/T12].

Then contained a corn mill and four fulling mills (probably four pairs of fulling stocks worked from one wheel, see 1787). 1702-04	John 2 Bond, 21-23	Clothier? married, son of John 1 Bond

1692 John 1 Bond buried Stroud: administration to his widow Ursula (buried 1708 Stroud), who may have had a life tenancy of the mill, worked by unknown subtenants. Their son John 2 Bond has children baptised in SH 1702-4, perhaps at 080, but seems to have moved to Stroud like his father [GA GDR/R8/1692/264].

Tithe accounts 1709-22 list ‘Mr.Kinn’s mill’ 1709-11: Edward Kinn, clothier of EB, had helped to make the probate inventory for John 1 Bond in 1692 and may have held the mill after Ursula Bond. Edward Webb, perhaps a relative of Ursula, with his wife and maid, was deleted. Mr Dean has ‘the wheels’ 1711, then John Mills 1711-13. John 2 Bond of Stroud 1714 has lease of mill from Madam Smith. Edward Kinn, clothier, lived in EB: none of these tenants identified as resident at 080 in SH manor lists, although John Mills said to have ‘left the parish’ in 1713. 1603 Roger Smith was a tenant of a cottage from the manor, probably since his marriage. Tenancy 'at will', meaning that he had permission from the lord of the manor to build and rent a new dwelling, probably on the roadside 'lord's waste'. In 1598 his house said to be next to 'Hamme Lane', apparently a name for the lower part of Oldends Lane, leading down to the 'hams', or water meadows, by the river Frome [GA D445/M13; TNA Harley MS 4131, Quarter Sessions Epiphany 40 Elizabeth, hundred presentments f522v].

1634 William 2 Smith, son of Roger, accused of overgrazing nearby land with his sheep, 'being but a cottager'. He or his son Daniel apparently gained the freehold from the manor by 1666, when Daniel 1 Smith does not appear in a list of manor rents. In 1672 he was taxed for two hearths [GA D445/M4, E4; TNA E179/247/14].

1685 clothworking tools were left to William 3 Smith in the will of his uncle Bartholomew Smith. However, William was a cordwainer (shoemaker) in his own will proved 1726, then 'of Oldens': left his property at 082 to be divided between Sarah and Elizabeth Clark, two of the daughters of Sarah Parke of 102, widow of Richard Clark of 120. They were perhaps his cousins, although no relationship is stated in the will, and none has so far been traced. The property contained 1) to Sarah: kitchen, hall, two butteries with two chambers and two cocklofts over, [work]shop and chamber over, garden, court, outhouses and brewhouse (shared with Elizabeth), and great orchard; 2) to Elizabeth: other kitchen with chamber and cockloft over, brewhouse, furnace and chamber over brewhouse, part of outhouse, garden and little orchard. Legacies included chattels and money to Hannah Tanner, widow Hayward, then occupying [Elizabeth Clark's] part of the premises, and her children including Sarah Hayward. 1730 Sarah Clark married at SH Anselm Wilcox, joiner/carpenter. Elizabeth Clark said 1770 to have stayed a spinster, her death not confirmed, but she was not listed as paying church rates 1758-70, only Anselm Wilcox: apparently become owner of both houses [GA P316/CW2/1, D445/T33].

1770 John Burroughs owner of both houses: 1) house with great orchard, late occupied by John 1 Clissold, now by Richard 2 Pitt tenant [late Sarah Clark]; 2) house late of Elizabeth Clark spinster, late occupied by her tenant Robert 5 Ball [GA D445/T33].

Land with houses let 1776-88 to Nathaniel 1 Hale of 085, then John Wilkins of 090 [GA land tax].

Poll book 1776 tenants given as Nathaniel 1 Hale and Thomas 2 Venn. Records suggest that Venn may have gone away, perhaps looking for work between about 1792 and 1800, leaving his wife Hannah and family as occupiers in 1797 [GA D5130/60, D445/T33].

House apparently built on the 'lord's waste' by lease to William 3 Clark from the manor c1736: not present in manor mortgage 1729, included manor deed 1751 [GA D445/T13, T14].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1736-68	William 3 Clark, 37-69	Farmer, widowed 1747, tenant of manor

1752-53	John 5 Stephens, 29-30	Farmer, son-in-law of William 3 Clark
1736-53	Hannah 2 Clark, 2-29	Wife of John 5 Stephens

1753 manor bought some lands attached to 139 D445/T13, also lands from 134, added to 099, which was a considerable farm by 1766 manor rental [GA D445/T13, D517].

1768 William 3 Clark died: house 099 then 'Stephens' Farm' of Thomas 3 Stephens [GA CW/2/1, D445/T13].

1773 manor mortgage included house 099 late occupied by William 3 Clark but then Thomas 3 Stephens, with orchard only, lands let to others. House then leased to Joseph Meredith of 015 and let to Evans family [GA D1347/acc.454/box 2288, D517].

1777 manor lease, house and lands to Thomas Clark, included in 1784 sale of manor to Thomas White: Thomas Clark not resident SH, possible link to SH families not established. Placed in trust as part of manor by Thomas White 1787 for family settlements [GA D445 E7, T16, D7416].

It appears that the manor gave 099 to the parish for use as poorhouses, in addition to the private provision at 133. No record has been found of this gift, but 099 has no number indicating private ownership on the map of 1803, and its lands had been dispersed in the related survey of 1804. 1818 manor court papers, 'that part of the watercourse…which runs near the poorhouses in consequence of running behind and near the privy houses of other dwellings is rendered unwholesome'. 1760 manor mortgage, 106 probably included in William 3 Clark's tenancy of 099 and 'lands long let to him'. 1761 he sublet 106 to parish in trust, house in Can Lane (old name for Gloucester Road) then occupied by William Cordwell: Clark's rent to manor reduced between 1750 and 1766, his lease apparently ended. 106 may have been let by parish to fund care of the poor until other provision, see 133 [GA D445/E5, T15, D517, P316/CW2/1, D1347/acc 1347/box 2280, stray in SH bundle 1851-80].

Notes on back of 1593 deed above: 1) who has his (William Winston's) estate now, William Clark's now; 2) the cottage in Can Lane was pulled down and built again and is now in the possession of Daniel Edwards [GA D294/4]. Cottage[s] perhaps rebuilt c1750.

Church rates suggest 1769 David 1 White, 1770-71 Henry 4 Beard renting or lodging but neither at 106 in manor list 1772 [GA P316/CW2/1, D517].

1774 manor mortgage, includes field adjoining 106, cottage occupied by William James on E [GA D445/T13].

1776 poll book, Samuel 1 Bishop has vote as freeholder for house and garden occupied by Henry 4 Beard, has bought 106 from the manor/parish [GA D5130/60, land tax, D1815/Eycott-Martin].

1789-99	John Chesterman, 47-57	Weaver, married, tenant of Bishop/Alder?
1789-99	Betty Grime, 46-56	Widow Rudge, wife of John Chesterman

Samuel 1 Bishop left 106 in the hands of his nephew, James Bishop 1 Alder: 1802 he became tenant of new owner, Samuel 2 Sparrow of 173, but sublet from 1805. 'Sparrow's' sold 1807 to Henry 2 Eycott of 080. Appears that his tenant William 4 Chapman sublet to others: William Dalby, tenant 1818-23, buried 1833 Minchinhampton aged 80, may have held it for his possible brother Isaac Dalby. 1823 onwards 106 occupied by 'Rodway and others', expanded into 'tenements' c1826 [GA land tax 1776-1832].

1805-11	William 1 Owen, 32-39	Dyer, married, tenant of Eycott

Henry 2 Eycott buried 1821 SH, 106 next owned until 1832 by his eldest son Henry Charles Eycott, but in 1839 by his younger son Frederick Eycott, tenant Thomas Powell, with William Hillman 1840 [GA land tax, tithe award SH 1839, D9125/1/10703].

This block of four cottages appears to have been built c1830 as an enterprise by William 3 Fryer, owner of the land in front of 117, and his brother-in-law Joseph Bellamy. The cottages never seem to have been fully occupied and were demolished to make way for the railway in 1845.

1836 plan of proposed railway, part of property 20 on plan, eight cottages (113-119) owners William 3 Fryer and Joseph Bellamy, these four 113-116 probably occupiers George Nash and Thomas Nash with two void [GA QRum 146].

1839-40 owner William 3 Fryer, 113 void, occupiers George Nash 114, Edward Hooper 115, Thomas Nash 116. 1841 John Hooper replaced Edward Hooper: probable relatives but link not established, incomplete nonconformist records [GA tithe award SH 1839, D9125/1/10703, census 1841].

Property expanded to 4-5 cottages, new part on north side added by William Barnard, perhaps mortgaged to James Bennett 1780, left to Jane Fryer in Bennett's will made 1780, then occupied by William Barnard and John Lawrence. 1559 Richard Gibbes held this freehold from the manor. He died 1559, then held by Thomas 1 Carpenter alias Gibbes, presumed to be his son. Partition of manor 1567 this property in share of William 1 Sandford. Site of original house believed to be 5-7 The Square [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12].

1581 will of Thomas 1 Gibbes left house he lived in to his wife for life, then to his son Giles (no further record found, presumed died without heirs), then to his son Bartholomew 1 Gibbes. Richard and Thomas Gibbes ran a smithy at 169 and had a 'blade mill' for sharpening tools at 005. Smith's tools initially to Giles, but the blade mill and smithy passed to another son, William 1 Gibbes. Bartholomew 1 Gibbes and successors turned to the cloth industry [GA GDR/R8/1581/108].

1589 manor court book: Bartholomew Gibbes took a plot 12ft by 60ft, presumed a piece of 'lord's waste', details in another court roll, now lost: perhaps included site of 119, which stayed in manor share of Fowler family [GA D4289/M1].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1539-59	Richard Gibbes, 40-60	Smith, widower, freeholder of manor
1559-81	Thomas 1 Gibbes, 42-64	Smith, married, freeholder of manor/Sandford

1612-20	Mary Pegler, 25-35	Wife of Giles 1 Gibbes

1605 Daniel 1 Fowler, lord of the manor, leased to Bartholomew 1 Gibbes housing lately built and 'framed together as one house' with housing on his own 'inheritance', in which his son Thomas 3 Gibbes lived. This was a new cross wing at the north end of the original house, partly protruding west onto the 'lord's waste' (steep roof of this surviving stone cross wing seen in photograph c1940, demolished 20C). Lease included a plot of the 'lord's waste' 8 yards wide and N to S 40 yards including the new wing, believed to be frontage of 120 and site of electrical showroom to the north [GA D445/T24; Frith postcard 3514, SHG collection].

1612 will of Bartholomew 1 Gibbes, left both houses to his widow until she remarried or died: his own house then to his son Thomas 3 Gibbes: appears that he had bought the freehold property from William 2 Sandford. House where Thomas 3 Gibbes lived held partly by lease from Daniel 1 Fowler and partly freehold, left after his widow to son Giles 1 Gibbes for term of the lease. Thomas to occupy it during his mother's tenure, then to have first refusal if Giles decided to sell. Codicil specified that wainscot panelling in the main house, and glass and furniture in both houses, to be kept for Thomas and Giles respectively. Thomas to have free access to his house and stabling for one horse 'as he has formerly had' [GA GDR/R8/1612/22].

Property 120

1631 inquisition post mortem for Giles 1 Gibbes, died 1630 KS: father left property there. Mother with him, no property in SH, presumed whole of 120 owned by Thomas 3 Gibbes [TNA C 142/478/62].

1676	Charles 1 Wood, 17	Clothworker? single, lodger?

1675 survey of manor leases, Bartholomew 2 Gibbes held ‘part of house and plot of land in his court’, presumably the same piece of roadside ‘waste’ leased in 1605 [GA D445/T13].

1685 will of Bartholomew Smith: left houses and land to brother Daniel 1 Smith (of 082, died 1711) for life, then to Daniel’s son William 3 Smith (died 1725), who also received all the clothworking tools. Probate inventory for 120 mentions hall, parlour chamber, buttery chamber and buttery, and cloth equipment including a warping bar and 6 pairs of shears [GA GDR/R8/1685/430, 1685/328].

1725 William 3 Smith of 082 died, in will cordwainer of Oldends, no reference to 120: probably already sold to Richard Merrett, gentleman of EB, owner of associated land on map of manor estate c1729. 1736 Richard Merrett settled 120 on his new wife Elizabeth Turner. Part of cross wing still manor lease in deed 1729, Thomas 1 Croome house ‘near the Elm’, large tree marked on map c1730. Thomas 1 Croome paying chief rent to manor 1740-53 [GA GDR/R8/1726/156, PC/1850, D1347/acc.1347/Lawrence bundle, D445/T14, E5].

1795 Deborah Lawrence, owner of 120, lease or mortgage to John Hopson of Stroud, died 1802, passed 1803 to his son Solomon Hopson of Stroud, also a butcher. Lease apparently included the old cross wing to 120 and land to the north. Solomon shared it with his brother Richard Hopson 1805-09, then Richard held it alone. No buildings around 120 on map of SH 1803. Hopson family may have established a slaughterhouse on property 125, operated by Richard Hopson from c1805. He developed 126 and 127 and shared the land tax with Lawrence from 1826 [GA land tax, D1347 maps].

1811 poll book: Samuel Lawrence of Rodborough vote for houses and land in SH occupied by Richard Hopson and others. 5 The Square refronted c1818 in continuous brick with new 4 (121): 5 given splayed brick ornament over windows. 1795 Deborah Lawrence, owner of 120, made a lease or mortgage to John Hopson of Stroud, died 1802, passed 1803 to his son Solomon Hopson of Stroud, also a butcher. This lease apparently included the old cross wing to 120 and land to the north. Solomon shared it with his brother Richard Hopson 1805-09, then Richard Hopson held it alone. No buildings are shown around 120 on map of SH 1803. The Hopson family may have established a butcher's slaughterhouse on property 125, operated by Richard Hopson from c1805. He developed properties 126 and 127 and shared the land tax with Samuel Lawrence from 1826 [GA land tax, D1347 maps].

1764 Robert Ball, lord of the manor, sold to Richard 2 Denton, owner of 130, a strip of manor 'waste' or green between 130 and the highway, effectively the roadside from the front of 130 to the modern Greenstreet turning, wider at the north end than at the south. 1795 Richard 2 Denton had 'lately built' a cottage (131) on the land [GA D1159].

1777 part of Richard 2 Denton's land lay on west side of plot containing 133, which was bought by his son John Denton in 1799. Richard seems to have added part of his land to John Denton's property, making a plot containing site of 132, as shown on map and survey of SH 1803-04. John Denton died 1824, will left all property to his brother Samuel Denton, subject to his widow having a life interest in his house at 133. Samuel Denton probably built 132 soon after [GA DA35/150/14, D1347 maps, P263/MI9, GDR/R8/1825/36].

1777 Joseph Meredith of 015 bought from the manor a piece of the 'waste', or manorial green, on which to build a cottage. This faced onto the modern Greenstreet on the north, with land of Richard 2 Denton on the west (see 132) and fields on the east. A cottage had been built by 1778, mortgaged to Samuel Dowdeswell, farmer of Standish. 1785 Joseph Meredith died, 1799 the property was sold by his son Joseph Meredith junior, broadweaver of Avening, to John Denton, son of Richard, with the mortgage transferred by Dowdeswell [GA DA35/150/14, land tax].

Richard 2 Denton appears to have added his land on the west to the plot, shown as one in 1804, with at least three cottages along the north side, all owned by John Denton, and called 'Solomon's Row'. These came to be used as poorhouses which, until Poor Law Unions were established in 1832, could be offered to the parish by private landlords to house those in need. According to a parliamentary report, SH did not have a poorhouse in 1777. Some suggested occupants quite long term, may have been others unknown and more short term [GA D1347 maps, P263/MI9: Abstracts of the Returns Made by the Overseers of the Poor', survey 1776-77, report by Thomas Gilbert [The history of the workhouse by Peter Higginbotham (workhouses.org.uk)].

1581 Thomas 1 Gibbes died: in his will left 'house newly built in Hasley Close' to his son William 1 Gibbes. Hasley Close was the field at the south corner between the modern Gloucester Road (then called Can Lane) and Oldends Lane. In 1581 the roadside 'waste' was much wider, so that this property adjoined Can Lane. The field was part of the Gibbes family freehold at 120, in the share of the manor held by the Sandford family. First tenants conjectural [GA GDR/R8/1581/108].

1617 Thomas 2 Gibbes ordered by manor court 'to rid away his tenant John Ireland', no reason given: John Ireland died that year. 1621 Thomas 1 Aldridge tenant of Thurston Gibbes [GA D445/M3].

1623 Thurston Gibbes died, no direct heirs: 138 then probably held from the Sandford family.

1536 Sir Nicholas Poyntz of Iron Acton held of the manor of Stonehouse a group of freehold properties acquired from Richard Stanshawe. By 1540 the group belonged to Henry Brayne, gentleman of London, who sold it to Thomas Lane gentleman of Gloucester, subject to existing lease to William Dangerfield and his wife Agnes. 1557 Thomas Lane, gentleman of Gloucester, sold all his Stonehouse property to John Robbins alias Bocher, yeoman of Matson. The Robbins family lived elsewhere and sublet. Tenant of the freehold group in manor survey 1559 Richard Robbins alias Bocher, brother of John [GA D4289/M1]. Partition of manor 1567, freehold group in share of William 1 Fowler, tenant still Richard Robbins alias Bocher [GA D2957/289/18, 19, 22, 25-38; D4289/M1, D445/T12].

1554 Robert Dangerfield left lease of 143, 'the house at the crosse', by will of his father William Dangerfield, after the death of his mother Agnes, buried 1558 SH [GA GDR/R8/1554/146]. Ordnance Survey map 1884 shows a well in the front yard. There may once have been a full crossroads here, with Cross Lane (Regent Street) continuing north, round the end of the house and along the former field boundary to join what is now Verney Road. This was distinct from Picked Cross, later The Cross, at the south end of Cross Lane, see 039 property history.

1687-1704 house presumed to be life tenancy of Mary 1 Dangerfield, widow Gabb, of Selwyn. 1761-92	Nathaniel 4 Beard, 49-80	Carpenter? widowed 1772, owner

Gregory family records incomplete, following outline possible. Sarah Gingell had several sons by her husband Thomas Gregory (B 1726 KS). James Gregory (C 1721 KS) presumed eldest brother living in 1760 when he confirmed his rights in 143 to another Sarah, widow Gregory, believed to be the widow of his younger brother Edward Gregory (C 1723 KS, B 1759 Bisley). She married 1761 Nathaniel 4 Beard: their son Edward Gregory Beard C 1764 SH. This marriage witnessed by Mary Rowles (C 1725 daughter of Daniel and Mary, B 1769 SH). Nathaniel 4 Beard sharing 143 with Solomon Rowles 1761-85: there may have been a family agreement reuniting the two halves of the house into one, owned by Nathaniel 4 Beard until died 1792 [GA P316/CW2/1, land tax 1776-1791; deeds SHG collection].

1807 James Smith sold 037 to John 1 Jeens, 1809 bought ‘waste’ in front of 143 from the manor, where later built 038 (described separately) [GA land tax, D445/M11].

Presumed that James Cratchley's mother Hester Parslow occupied the new tenement 144 by agreement [TNA PROB 11/1525/223, GA land tax returns, D2028].

1841 both properties 144 and 145 were being run as a school by Kenard Gardiner, 'Mr Gard[i]ner's Academy', with his family, servants and eight pupils. He was still resident in 1843 when the family properties were conveyed to Thomas Bellamy Barnard, maltster of Frampton on Severn, a cousin of Thomas Partridge Barnard [GA census 1841, D2028].

1726-27 Thomas Parslow encroached on the lord's waste and set up pales, that is, he enclosed a piece of the roadside belonging to the manor. He was living on this site by 1734, and in 1736 was censured by the manor court for erecting a cottage without leave, usually a mechanism for setting a rent [GA D445/M9, M10].

Thomas Parslow was permitted to keep the house, renting the land from the manor. It appears to have been large enough to house lodgers from the start. In 1805 his grandson James Cratchley claimed to have been left 145 under his grandfather's will: this will has not been found [GA P316/OV3/4/208].

The property does not appear in most documents about the manor, but a rental of 1766 shows that land 'late Parslow's' was being held from the manor. This 'chief rent' was still being paid by the Cratchley family in 1784, but James Cratchley was able to sell the property in 1788, perhaps having reached an agreement with the new owners of the manor [GA D517, D445/E7, T17, land tax].

Property 145

1805 James Cratchley claimed he inherited 145 under his grandfather Thomas Parslow's will (not found), lived there for three years, then sold it to Thomas Lawrence in 1788. Lawrence rebuilt 145 and added 144, shown on map of SH 1803 with same outline as in 1839 [GA P316/OV3/4/208, D1347 maps, tithe award SH 1839].

1811 Thomas Lawrence buried SH, will left his property in trust for sale, bought by John Barnard, who in 1817 assigned a mortgage on house where Thomas Lawrence lately dwelt (145), and tenement adjoining (144), all erected on site of tenement and smith's shop late occupied by James Cratchley [TNA PROB 11/1525/223, GA land tax returns, D2028].

He was still resident in 1843 when the family properties were conveyed to Thomas Bellamy Barnard, maltster of Frampton on Severn, a cousin of Thomas Partridge Barnard [GA census 1841, D2028].

This property was a freehold of the manor, in survey 1559 believed to be held by John 1 Gabb, with perhaps 20 acres of land near the house and in other fields. Partition of manor 1567, this freehold in share of William 1 Sandford, still held by John 1 Gabb, who appears to have passed or left it to William 1 Gibbes, husband of his great-niece Katherine Cadell, married in 1567. William 1 Gibbes probably rebuilt the medieval house in about 1580, followed by later alterations [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12].

1558-67	John 1 Gabb, 50-60	Farmer? single, tenant of Sandford

1642 this was one of several properties, including a smithy at 169, held by Thomas 2 Gibbes at his death. 147, where he lived, was held as freehold directly from the Crown, not the Sandford family, who had presumably sold it to Gibbes, perhaps in 1614 at the same time as 148. William 2 Gibbes of 004 died ten days after his father in 1642. Marriage settlement made for William 1635 gave his widow Margery 2 Blanch a life interest in 147, heir his daughter Jane Gibbes [TNA C 142/698/45].

1643 Margery 2 Blanch married Daniel 2 Fowler, came to live at 147. Margery 2 Blanch also died in 1680, when 147 passed through her granddaughter Jane Selwyn to Jane's husband Daniel Colwell. 1685 he was censured at the manor court for having added a cottage to his property, believed to be 146 [GA GDR/R8/1691/167, D445/M8].

1614 Thomas 2 Gibbes identical manorial duties to Thomas Bremiard 1613, appears to have bought 148 from the Sandford family. 1642 this was one of several properties held by Thomas 2 Gibbes of 147 at his death, a cottage occupied by William 1 King, with enlarged lands, said to be held from the manor for a rent, perhaps as manorial freehold. William 2 Gibbes of 004 died ten days after his father in 1642. Marriage settlement made for William 1635 gave his widow Margery 2 Blanch a life interest in 148, followed by his daughter Jane Gibbes as heir [GA D445/M7, TNA C 142/698/45].

148 may have been let to other members of the Fowler family for a few years, but perhaps left void and rebuilt or modified after death of William 4 Fowler 1703: house later known as The Elms, 17th century stone style but lintel arches over windows.

Next owner William 5 Andrews of 090: had married 1687 Sarah 1 Fowler, niece of William 4 Fowler and granddaughter of Daniel 2 Fowler. Tithe accounts 1709 show him paying for lands linked to 148, although no tenant of the house is indicated [GA P316/IN3/1 p.51].

1720 Sarah 1 Fowler, widow Andrews, and her sons, mortgaged cottage formerly occupied by William 1 King and 1720 by Thomas Fryer, with garden and piece of 'Bremiard's Mead' to the south, with other land. 1723 the Fowlers sold the property to Thomas Fryer, subject to the mortgage. 1743 Thomas Fryer sold the outlying land to Nathaniel 3 Fowler of 057 [GA D678/1/T2/4/104-111].

1768 William 2 Fryer inherited 148 after the death of his grandfather Thomas Fryer. Living in Stroud, in 1772 he sold the house to John 1 Carruthers, who left it in 1783 to his widow Elizabeth Martin for life, then to his son William 2 Carruthers, who mortgaged it in 1802 to his brother-in-law William Stanton, clothier of Stroud. Mortgage not repaid, 1822 William Stanton conveyed rights in 148 to his sisters-in-law Elizabeth, Hannah and Sarah Carruthers. 1823 they all made wills, all proved 1838, leaving the house in trust to William Stanton and their brother Thomas 2 Carruthers, to be held by their sister Mary Webb, for her life 'separate and apart from her husband if living', then by Thomas [GA P316/CW2/1, GDR/R8/1783/88, C/DC/SJ/16, GDR/R8/1838/150, 151, 152].

John 1 Carruthers in his will also left two cottages and gardens across the High Street from 148 (169 and 170) lately bought from Thomas 3 Humphries, in trust to be sold: adjoining newly erected stable (171) and orchard behind which kept with 148 until 1846 [GA GDR/R8/1783/88].

1495 William Lucas, manor tenant, ordered to repair his ruinous house [GA D445/M2].

1558-59 Thomas 1 Harmer of 026 tenant of this manorial copyhold, granted to him, his son John and daughter Margery in 1558, house called Lucas with 2.5 acres adjoining and about eight acres spread about in various fields. John Harmer not in father's will 1560, may have died. Margery assumed kept her life tenancy of 149 under the Sandfords and sublet to unknown tenants. Partition of manor 1567, this property in share of William 1 Sandford [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12, GDR/R8/1560/153].

1576-89 manor court books record James Vaisey from about 1576 as a common butcher who frequently 'trades against the assizes', selling bread and allowing illegal gaming: Anselm Vaisey also a butcher, not clear whether either of them occupied 149. 1604 Simon Vaisey presented for unlawful card playing in his house, may already have been tenant. Vaisey family difficult to trace in this period [GA D445/M3, M7].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property
1560 - 1605	Margery Harmer, 15-60	Life tenant, single, perhaps subletting to Vaisey family
1604-41	Simon 1 Vaisey, 30-70	Butcher, married, tenant of Sandford/Gibbes?
1632	Henry 1 Beard, 25	Farmer, single, lodger?
1608-68	Simon 2 Vaisey, 1-60	Butcher, married 1631, son of Simon 1 Vaisey, tenant of Gibbes from 1641

Thomas 2 Gibbes appears to have bought 149 from the Sandford family, perhaps in 1614 at the same time as he bought 148. In 1642 this was one of several properties he held at his death, occupied by Simon 2 Vaisey, with some of the land held in 1559, and said to be held from the manor for a rent, perhaps become a manorial freehold. William 2 Gibbes of 004 died ten days after his father in 1642. Marriage settlement made for William 1635 gave his widow Margery 2 Blanch a life interest in 149, heir his daughter Jane Gibbes. Margery died in 1680, when 149 passed through her granddaughter Jane Selwyn to Jane's husband Daniel Colwell [GA GDR/R8/1691/167, TNA C 142/698/45].

1634-64	Stephen 1 Vaisey, 1-30	Butcher, married 1663, son of Simon 2 Vaisey
1663-64	Hannah Maysey, 23-24	Wife of Stephen 1 Vaisey
1636-66	John 1 Vaisey, 1-30	Butcher? single, son of Simon 2 Vaisey
1657-61	Thomas Hawker, 25-29	Butcher? single, lodger?

1666-67 no payment for 149 seen in list of manor rents, apparently become full freehold. Probable that Stephen Selwyn, husband of Jane Gibbes, added new housing 152 by 1668. 1672 blank entry of tax on four hearths after widow Selwyn at 148, perhaps for 149 and 152. 1676 reduced 149 believed leased to Jane Mill, widow Gough, close friend of Stephen and Jane Selwyn [GA D445/E4, TNA E179/247/14, GA P316a/PC/6/1, GDR/211/page 294].

1666-75	Giles Aldridge, 21-30	Blacksmith? single, tenant of Selwyn 1668?
1676-89	Jane Mill, 57-70	Widow Gough, tenant of Selwyn/Colwell?

Property 149

1710 Daniel Colwell placed his property into trust for his daughter Elizabeth and her new husband Thomas 1 Humphries, including cottage held by Samuel Bayley (149), with Thomas 1 Browning tithe accounts 1709 [GA D678/1/T2/4/163-182, P316/IN3/1].

1690 - 1705	Robert 2 Ball, 42-57	Clothworker? single, tenant of Colwell?

1718-20	Jonathan Gegg, 24-26	Gentleman, single, lodger?
1718-20	Benjamin Gegg, 14-16	Gentleman, single, brother of Jonathan Gegg
1728-36	Stephen 2 Collier, 44-52	Tailor, son-in-law of Anne Buckell, widow Browning, tenant of Humphries?
1728-53	Hester 1 Browning, 40-65	Wife/widow of Stephen 2 Collier, life tenant?
1738-46	Stephen 3 Collier, 25-33	Clothworker? married, son of Stephen 2 Collier
1738-46	Mary 1 Biddle, 25-33	Wife of Stephen 3 Collier
1746-67	Mary Harris, 50-71	Widow Duck, mother of Josiah Duck, tenant of Humphries?
1746-83	Josiah Duck, 4-41	Clothworker? absent before M 1761, widowed 1780, tenant of Humphries/Fryer?
1746-48	Christopher 1 Nixon, 61-63	Weaver, married, lodger?
1749-51	Charles Mitchell, 29-31	Butcher, single, lodger?

1769 Thomas 3 Humphries probably sold 149 to William 2 Fryer, or to a trustee or intermediary as William was then under 21: 149 seems excluded from further transactions about 147. William 2 Fryer owner of 149 by 1776 [GA D678/1/T2/4/163-182, land tax].

William 2 Fryer believed to have developed 149 as coaching inn after turnpike route to Gloucester via Standish improved 1780: extended existing building, added stables and assembly room. William 2 Fryer innkeeper of Crown and Anchor 1811, died 1828, inn taken over by his son-in-law Joseph Bellamy [GA GDR/Q1/1811/no. 295, SHG].

1782 - 1836	Eleanor Abia Fryer, 1-54	Wife of Joseph Bellamy 1828
1838-40	William Mealing, 41-43	Innkeeper, married, tenant of Fryer/Bellamy
1841-42	George Busswell, 32-36	Innkeeper, married, tenant of Fryer/Bellamy

Joseph Bellamy may have continued to live at 147 while landlord 1828-38.

1839-40 owner William 3 Fryer, 1839 occupier William Mealing, 1840 as Joseph Bellamy: 1841 occupier George Busswell [GA tithe award SH 1839, D9174/4/12, census 1841].

1810 William 1 Hyde of 152 died, will proved 1811 left 'houses, tenements, gardens and orchard land and other premises lying on the East side of Stonehouse Street' (152) to his daughter Elizabeth Hyde absolutely. She was also to receive 151 and the site of 150 after the death of her mother Mary Hogg. Land tax was paid for the whole by her brother Reuben Hyde until 1820, when her husband Charles Thornton took over the tax for 152. Mary Hyde, widow of William, died 1822, when the Thorntons appear to have sold 151 and the site of 150 to Reuben Hyde, who then built the cottages at 150. Thorntons may have lodged there 1820s while house at 152 rebuilt [GA GDR/R8/1811/160, land tax].

1803-4 site of 150 and 151 a close of orchard, owner William Hyde with 152, building in position of 151 appears to be barn, no house described [GA P263/MI9, D1347 maps]. William Hyde seems to have converted or replaced the barn as 151 by 1810 and let it to Simon Sparrow, brother-in-law of his son Reuben Hyde.

1810 William 1 Hyde of 152 died, will made May 1810, proved 1811, left 'two cottages and gardens occupied by Thomas Evans and Simon Sparrow' (151) to his widow Mary for her life, then to his daughter Elizabeth Hyde absolutely. This property was included in the land tax paid by Elizabeth's brother Reuben Hyde. Mary Hyde, widow of William, died in 1822, when the Thorntons appear to have sold 151 to Reuben Hyde [GA land tax, GDR/R8/1811/160].

The site of 150, 151 and 152 was a close of 1.5 acres, part of 149 in 1642: probable that Stephen Selwyn, husband of heir Jane Gibbes, added new housing 152 by 1668. 1672 blank entry of tax on four hearths after widow Selwyn at 148, perhaps for 149 and 152 [TNA C 142/698/45, E 179/247/14].

Manor court papers suggest Stephen 1 Vaisey, tenant of 152, shared it with an 'inmate' by 1676. Jane Mill, widow Gough probably bought 152 c1683 from Daniel Colwell, when she was said to have 'continued a cottage'. 1686 she and her son John 2 Gough sold to Maurice Clements a house divided into two dwellings, occupied by Stephen 1 Vaisey and Solomon 1 Rowles, thought to be on the site of 33-35 High Street, and rest of the close of 1.5 acres on the north or north-east, later the site of 150 and 151 [GA P316a/PC/6/1, D445/M8, M14].

1715 mortgage by Maurice Clements and his son Thomas 1 Clements to William Hendy, grocer of Bristol, who assigned the mortgage in 1716 to Thomas Cam, tallow chandler of Cam. 1728 Thomas Cam, 'called William', had gained ownership, then mortgaged the property himself to William Budding, tallow chandler of EN. Budding also assigned the mortgage in 1744, but went bankrupt in 1746, when his assessors sold 152 to Francis 1 Hewlings, scribbler of SH. Mortgage 1796 [described below] gives main holders after Clements as Thomas 1 Carruthers, then Giles Middlemore and Mary Loe, widow Biddle, Francis and William Hewlings, then William Hyde. Mary Loe lived elsewhere but let her share out. Hewlings family names found EN late 17th century, but connections unclear [GA P316a/PC/6/1].

1785 sale, Francis 1 Hewlings to William 1 Hyde of Standish, butcher, and his mortgagee John 1 Dimock, clothier of SH. The number of tenants seems to increase, suggesting nos. 37-39 added at this time. 1796 mortgage by William 1 Hyde and John 1 Dimock assigned to Henry Butt of Standish gentleman, of house formerly in two held by Thomas 1 Carruthers, then Giles Middlemore and Mary [Loe, widow] Biddle, lately by Francis and William Hewlings, now William Hyde. 1683 Thomas Smith, lord of the manor, was granted the right to hold two fairs a year on Stonehouse green. A 'fairs barn' was provided to service them, rethatched in 1742. In 1779 a mortgage of the manor included 'a barn erected in Stonehouse Street and used on account of the said two fairs'. A building without a private owner is shown on a map of 1803, on the site of what became the Globe Inn [Stonehouse: Economic history | British History Online; GA D445/E5, D1347/acc1347/box 2273, abstract of title of Ingram Ball to manor, D1347 maps].

1807 Simon Sparrow, clothier of SH, and his father Samuel 2 Sparrow, mortgaged to Nathaniel Gardiner of SH baker and maltster, and others, a newly erected house, shop, brewhouse and garden, with rights of way for maintenance round NE and NW sides, and the highway on SW side. Further documents not found, inference that the Sparrows had bought the barn from the lord of the manor, Thomas Little White, who is known to have sold off other pieces of the 'waste', or green, at this time. Simon Sparrow then perhaps let the premises c1810 to his brother-in-law Reuben Hyde, then c1822 to his brother James Sparrow. First reference to 'Globe Inn' found 1820 [GA D2957/289/77, land tax, Directory of Gloucestershire Gell and Bradshaw 1820].

1836 plan of proposed railway no.27, James Sparrow 'owner or reputed owner', Globe Inn, yard, garden, stable and outbuildings. Likely that he was tenant of Reuben Hyde, who probably became owner after Simon Sparrow c1835: will of Nathaniel 2 Gardiner 1839 left Globe Inn and premises bought from Reuben Hyde to his son-in-law James Sparrow, 'paying Mrs Vaisey for the mortgage on it' [GA QRum146 1836 railway plan and book, GDR/R8/1839/143].

1839-41 owner/occupier James Sparrow [GA tithe award SH 1839, D9174/4/12, census 1841].

This house does not seem to be present before 1558. 1572 manor court ordered that no ducks or geese to be kept on the watercourse between house of Thomas 1 Walter (101) and house of Walter Mill – later amended to 'the stream in Stonehouse Street'. This seems to describe the course of the Caudle Stream down the east side of Gloucester Road (formerly included in Stonehouse [High] Street as far as the Oldends Lane turning) to the passage under the railway bridge, where it turned to cross the road and head to the Vicarage. 158 appears to have stood at this turning point, believed to be on land associated with the freehold at 120: assigned to William 1 Sandford in manor partition of 1567, but the freehold had already been granted to him as a tenant of the manor in 1563. House 158 may have been built by Sandford as early as 1564: not found in manorial records, probably being part of the Sandford family estates. Richard son of Walter Mill C 1566 SH, moved to CX. He was an alehouse keeper in 1622 and perhaps sublet 158 [GA D4289/M1, D445/T8, T12, M3].

1811 will of William 1 Hyde proved: left to his son Reuben Hyde a piece of land with a barn on west side of road lately bought from Thomas White Esquire, also a mortgage on 'the new house' which was also left to Reuben Hyde, suggesting that building on the land had begun [GA GDR/R8/1811/60].

1818-19 Edward Palling Carruthers, lord of SH manor, brought a lawsuit in the King's Bench to eject those who had built on the 'waste' without permission, including Reuben Hyde and his tenant George Spearing. Hyde and his neighbours had extended their plots further east towards the street. Private deeds relating to 163 indicate that the cases were settled by agreement and the offending buildings were allowed to remain. George Spearing perhaps lodger at 077 during dispute [GA D1347/acc. 1347 Ball/Marling bundle; private deeds seen by SHG].

Nathaniel 2 Gardiner made his will in 1829, although it was not proved until 1839: left 'the four tenements inhabited by Mrs Harris, Charles Park, Simon Sparrow and Ambrose Chamberlain' to wife Hannah (Sparrow) for life, then to his son-in-law James Sparrow. William Sharp still listed in land tax 1832 but may have moved to Birmingham by 1829, sons married there, Edwin 1831, Charles (C 1813 SH) 1832 [GA GDR/R8/1839/143].

Part of this property was Vicarage Terrace, a pair of cottages apparently added c1809 in what is now the rear garden of 72 High Street. This terrace is listed separately below.

A further cottage was added in stone on the north end of the extended 72 High Street by about 1820, with a probable rear entry, occupied by Charles Park. In 1841 he had lodgers Samuel 4 Browning and John 13 Gabb. This cottage, which became 74 High Street, is thought to have been extended in about 1845 to include part of the front brick extension to 72 High Street, adding a new front entrance.

This is a property of two parts. A medieval timber-framed house with a cellar still exists behind the frontage of the fishing shop. A stone building was attached to it in 1606, partly on manor land, and the two were joined into one ownership by 1659.

Medieval house freehold of SH manor, held in 1533 by Walter Winston, gentleman of Randwick, who would have sublet it. He sold it that year to Thomas Sewell and Roger Fowler, clothiers of Stroudwater, described as his house next to the vicarage lane in SH, with two closes adjoining and other lands anciently belonging to it, being a few acres of land spread about in fields. Sewell and Fowler may have been members of a charity, the feoffees of Stroud church, who were freeholders of SH manor in 1533 [GA D294/3, D445/M2, D914/2].

1541 will of Roger Fowler of Bisley proved, no SH property mentioned, overseer his brother Richard Fowler. Possible that Richard Fowler had bought 167 and lands from feoffees, freeholder in SH from 1542 for land called ‘Segars’. This name also connected to parts of other properties in whole old parish, may indicate remnants of large freehold held 1299 by Elias Segar or Segalt, since dispersed within manor and to others eg Walter Winston [TNA PROB 11/28/582, C 133/91/2; GA D340a/M23].

1559 manor survey, Edward 1 Fowler freeholder for four properties, rent to manor 4 shillings and ten pence, believed to be 167 and other holdings in EB, held as son of Richard Fowler [GA D4289/M1].

1560 Richard Fowler buried SH, lived at More Hall near WP: will made 1560 left lease of More Hall to wife for life then to son Edward 1 Fowler. IPM 1561 states Richard Fowler also during life by deed 1560 granted to son Edward 1 Fowler, wife Joan and heirs, five properties in SH and Oxlynch, the four in SH held of William 1 Fowler as of the manor of SH, partition of manor 1567 in share of William 1 Fowler [TNA PROB 11/43/429, C 142/129/96; GA D445/T12].

1577, 1581 Edward 1 Fowler freeholder for land called ‘Segars’ as well as for More Hall. He died 1582, will proved 1583 with annexe, left More Hall to wife for life provided she gave up her rights in all SH property when son and heir Anselm Fowler reached 21 [GA GDR/R8/1583/19, D4289/M1].

1577 William Nicholson one of overseers of will of James 1 Fowler, brother and possible tenant of Edward 1 Fowler at 167: Nicholson also made guardian of James’ daughter Alice. 1584 glebe terrier [survey of land belonging to the parish church] William Nicholson has orchard part 167 to north of glebe land now (2026) site of Laburnum Mews. The Fowlers added two houses, one on 167 occupied by Anselm Blanch, one 166 occupied by John 1 Kerry [see below 1631]. Anselm Fowler of More Hall, son of Edward 1 Fowler, has 167 in glebe terrier 1599, subletting both houses [TNA PROB 11/59/584; GA GDR V5/289T, D1759].

1558-77	James 1 Fowler, 20-40	Clothier, married, brother of Edward 1 Fowler
1575-88	William Nicholson, 40-50	Clothier, family unknown, tenant of Fowler?

1600-15	William Parke, 22-37	Servant to Thomas 1 Spokes, single, lodger?
1584 - 1634	Anselm Blanch, 25-65	Weaver? married, tenant of Fowler in second house

Property 167

1603 manor rental: Anselm Fowler for one part of certain lands called Seagars, rent 2s; William Clutterbuck for another part of the said lands called Seagars, rent 3s. Anselm Fowler had apparently sold 167 but kept the other lands.1604-9 William Clutterbuck (clothier of EN) a freeholder in SH. Death noted 1609, his freehold to sons Richard and John 2 Clutterbuck [GA D445/M7, M13; The Clutterbuck Book section 60].

1606 manor court gave permission to William 3 Harmer and his wife Susanna 'to build up his house which he hath already begun in Stonehouse strete', to be held for their lives (from the freeholders) 'conditionally that they shall behave themselves honestly and decently as shall befit people of their sorte and havior to doe'. This permission needed because the site intruded on the 'waste' or Green. This became the stone part of 167, without the later 62 High Street. William's mother Anne Clutterbuck a cousin of Richard and John 2 Clutterbuck, the freeholders, who would have agreed rent with the manor for the 'waste'. 1611-1631 John 2 Clutterbuck freeholder in SH, 1631 has sold his freehold to Richard and William Selwyn [GA D445/M3; The Clutterbuck Book section 85].

1631 sale: John Clutterbuck of Horsley, clothier and Richard Clutterbuck of EN, clothier, sons of William Clutterbuck, to Richard Selwyn of MV clothier and William Selwyn his second son, house lately occupied by Thomas Spokes, now by Edward Smith, called 'Sheppards', with garden, backside, orchard and close adjoining of two acres; also two houses 'lying neare the first', occupied by Anselm Blanch (perhaps on site of 64-66 High Street) and John Kerry (property 166: John 1 Kerry died 1591, this may be an old description. His grandson John 2 Kerry living at 107 in 1632) [GA D1759; The Clutterbuck Book sections 61, 73]

1608 manor court book, John Sheppard seneschal [steward] of the manor, perhaps had an interest in the property [GA D445/M7].

1622-27	John 2 Clutterbuck, 17-22	Clothier, single, part owner
1627-31	Edward Smith, 50-55	Clothier? married, tenant of Clutterbuck?
1606-20	William 3 Harmer, 27-41	Small farmer? married, tenant of Clutterbuck cousins/manor in stone part
1606-77	Nathaniel 1 Harmer, 7-78	Small farmer? married c1635, son of William 3 Harmer, tenant Selwyn/manor/Harmer in stone

1651 Richard Selwyn the elder of Horsemarling in MV, clothier, included in the marriage settlement for his second son William Selwyn and Sarah Michell, house called Sheppard's lately occupied by Thomas Spokes, then Edward Smith, now James 2 Fowler, with garden backside orchard and close adjoining of two acres, with a toft or parcel of land where another house stood nearby, sometime held by Anselm Blanch [GA D1579].

1659 sale of property as in 1651 by Thomas Blanch of Putley in Standish, clothier and his wife Margaret, and John Osborne of SH, clothier, and his wife Sarah to John 1 Harmer of London, ironmonger, all bought by Richard and William Selwyn from John and Richard Clutterbuck, excluding a cottage (166) formerly of John 1 Kerry now of Roger Parslow. Also involved, Giles Chapman of SH (broadweaver of WP) and his wife Jane (possible that Margaret, Sarah and Jane were sisters of William Selwyn, and of Stephen Selwyn of SH, but no records found, perhaps in lost registers of RW) [GA D149/T1049, D1579].

1632-57	James 2 Fowler, 26-51	Broadweaver, married, tenant of Selwyn then Osborne?
1658-59	John 2 Osborne, 30	Clothier, married, part owner
1659-64	John 1 Harmer, 77-82	Ironmonger, single, owner
1659-66	Thomas 4 Harmer, 41-48	Farmer, married, nephew of John 2 Harmer

1664 will of John 1 Harmer, citizen and ironmonger of London, left to nephew Nathaniel 2 Harmer (of 093) house and lands in SH lately bought from John Osborne, with other property [TNA PROB 11/315/180].

Property 167

John 1 Harmer appears to have united John Osborne's property with the stone part occupied by his probable cousins: 1666 no rent recorded from Nathaniel 2 Harmer to the manor [GA D445/E4].

1672 hearth tax, possible damaged entry blank paying tax for 5 hearths: glebe terrier 1677 Nathaniel 2 Harmer has orchard part 167 to north of glebe land now (2026) site of Laburnum Mews, glebe terrier 1704 same land held by Jonathan Harmer [TNA E179/247/14; GA GDR V5/289T].

1675 - 1704	Jonathan Harmer, 20-50	Clothier, married 1688, son of Nathaniel 2 Harmer, owner from 1684?
1699 - 1704	Jane Sevill, 22-27	Second wife of Jonathan Harmer
1682-85	Maurice Clements, 30-35	Chandler, married, tenant of Harmer?
1682-85	Sarah Jenner, 25-30	Wife of Maurice Clements

Jonathan Harmer sold 167 in about 1705 to Jonathan Harris, who had opened it as the Swan Inn by 1708. He died in 1715, leaving it to his wife for life, then to his son William 1 Harris. His probate inventory, partly made by Jonathan Harmer, lists kitchen, parlour with grate, 2 tables, 14 chairs, 8-day clock, hall with grate, 2 tables, chairs, cellar with drink and vessels, brewhouse, hall chamber with 1 bed, 2 tables, 6 chairs, parlour chamber with grate, 2 beds, 3 tables, 6 chairs and dayhouse [dairy] chamber with 2 beds, garret with glass bottles [GA D678/1/T2/4/23-61, GDR/R8/1714/42, GDR/R8/1714/181].

1715 Sarah Harris, widow, hosted the manor court at the Swan Inn. About 1720 the Harris family sold 167 to John Taylor [GA D445/M9, P316/IN3/1].

1705-15	Jonathan Harris, 39-49	Innkeeper, married, owner
1705-19	Sarah Lye, 35-50	Wife/widow of Jonathan Harris, life tenant

1727 will of John Taylor, left all his property to his brother William 1 Taylor. William died in 1728 'of the Swan', leaving all his property to his own son William (C 1706 Quedgeley). His widow Joan[na] could live in the 'house at SH' or was to have money if they 'do not agree to live together'. William Taylor the younger did not stay in SH and appears to have passed ownership of 167 to his sister Sarah 1 Taylor, exercised through her three successive husbands [GA GDR/R8/1727/200, GDR/R8/1729/228].

1720-27	John Taylor, 43-50	Innkeeper, married, owner

1774 the vicar, John Pettat, and a group of local clothiers and gentry contributed to a fund to establish two charity schools, in SH and EB. 1775 John Elliott of Lincoln's Inn Esquire, son of Thomas Elliott and Hannah Nash, assigned to them the former Swan Inn, formerly occupied by Jonathan Harris, John Taylor, Daniel Ellis and George Carruthers but now uninhabited, with three acres of land adjoining occupied by John 1 Carruthers, all lately bought by John Elliott (of London) from John 1 Carruthers, for the provision of two charity schools to teach children aged 5 and over, for three years, the principles of the Church of England. Soon afterwards the schools had 40 children. In 1827 there were 28 children at the SH school, and 16 at EB; each school had a master [GA D445/SC1, C/DC/E/21: VCH Glos vol.10, pp 288-289].

Early history of this property conjectural. 1571 William 1 Elliott in manor court book: died 1588. 1572 butcher, selling meat during church service time and absent from church. 1603 Elizabeth Elliott, widow, held cottage 'at will' from manor share held by Fowler family: died 1616. This cottage not identified in manor survey 1559, perhaps new on manorial roadside 'waste', now forecourt of Woolpack Inn. Map of SH manor property c1730 shows intrusion from behind into 'waste' on corner, forward of property 040 across road [GA D4289/M1, D445/M13, GDR 29 pp.203-4, PC/1850].

Land behind this cottage known as 'Alice Hicks', now site of Woolpack Inn, Community Centre, shops and houses, perhaps part of freehold property held from manor in 1559 by Thomas Sandford, brother of William 1 Sandford. 1567 partition of manor, this freehold in share of William 1 Fowler. 1573 Edward Sandford heir to his father Thomas. Edward Sandford freeholder of manor until he died 1613. Will left 'house, free lands, mills and living in SH' (no further detail) to his widow Elizabeth for life (died 1645), then to son Thomas and heirs, one of overseers to will William 2 Sandford [GA D4289/M1, D445/T12, M3, GDR/R8/1613/42].

Thomas Sandford, son of Edward, called freeholder in SH 1627-30. He settled in LS, said to have died 1644: property at Ryeford (004) passed to his brother-in-law Stephen 3 Dangerfield. Possible that his heirs passed freehold land at 186 to his cousin John Sandford of LS, a younger son of William 2 Sandford, whose descendants later owned it [GA D445/M3, M4].

Observation of restoration work on Woolpack Inn 1998 suggested it may originally have been a barn with undaubed woven lath ventilation panels, on freehold land behind roadside cottage. Likely that John Sandford or family bought both freehold land and cottage from Fowler manor and developed the barn: no rents listed as due from Sandford family to manor 1666-67 [GA D445/E4].

Date	Name, approximate age	Probable situation while at this property

Barn perhaps extended as housing by Sandford family after 1645, front cottage in time became stables/outbuildings. 1672 Abraham Pegler paying tax for three hearths [TNA E179/247/14].

1661-75	Abraham Pegler, 50-75	Farmer? married, tenant of Sandford?
1661-85	Hester Page, 45-70	Wife/widow of Abraham Pegler
1683-88	John 1 Apperley, 34-39	Farmer, married 1684, tenant of Sandford?

1689 - 1704	Jonathan Harris, 23-38	Farmer/mercer, married, tenant of Sandford?
1689 - 1704	Sarah Lye, 21-35	Wife of Jonathan Harris

1686 Francis Bachelor buried Cirencester, of SH in administration renounced by widow Elizabeth, granted to William Mill principal creditor. Probate inventory by William 4 Sandford and others lists goods in kitchen, buttery, one chamber, outhouse, five acres wheat, barley and beans, hay, seven horses and harness, wagon and appurtenances, two pigs [GA GDR/R8/1686/65, GDR/R8/1686/281].

Jonathan Harris perhaps offered lodgings: innkeeper at 167 in 1708 [GA D678/1/T2/4/23-61].

Sandford family wills do not give property detail. John Sandford of LS died 1684 leaving all property, after some bequests, to his eldest son Robert Sandford (C 1642 LS), witness his second son Rev. Anselm Sandford (C 1647 LS). 1709-13 Stephen Merrett, with family and two servants, tenant of 'the Homestead or Ales Hicks', also occupying land behind 186 held for life by 'widow Sandford of LS', apparently Dorothy 2 Sandford, widow of Rev. Anselm Sandford. Robert Sandford of LS died 1719, will left all property, after some bequests, to his own son Robert Sandford (C 1688 LS). Property seems used by butchers for much of 18th century, slaughter onsite, pasture land behind, probably also base for carriers, some lodgers suggested by position in manor lists [GA GDR/R8/1684/420, P316/IN3/1, GDR /R8/1719/97].

1705-13	Stephen Merrett, 74-82	Wagoner, widowed 1712, tenant of Sandford?

1748-67	Samuel Hogg, 34-63	Butcher, married, tenant of Sandford/Reddall
1751-68	Jane Norton, 22-39	Wife/widow of Samuel Hogg

Samuel Hogg brother-in-law of Hopeful 1 Jones 1757-87. Jones was carrier between SH and Gloucester, lived near 186 and may have kept his transport and horses there.

This property was an 'extra-parochial place', outside SH parish administration: land stretching down to river from medieval Ebley Road, perhaps for some reason not cultivated, exempt from poor rates, church rates, tithes. Difficult to trace because as consequence not in most records. Land appears farmed by different people until 18th century [https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Extra-parochial_area].

John Mosley of CX, woolstapler, died in 1776, having bought collection of properties in WP, CX and EB areas. Will made 1771, after provision for his wife, left all property in trust for his son John 1 Mosley by 'former wife' Elizabeth, presumed to include this land, although not separately mentioned [GA/GDR/R8/1776/135].

House believed built c1764 by or for John 1 Mosley: named as present at no. 31 on map and key of proposed canal 1775. Property included in mortgage of Mosley estates 1806, three acres on north side of river and later canal, and houses built on it. People living in extra-parochial places often in anomalous position with parish, Mosley and Webb family records sometimes nonconformist or not found [GA D1180/8/2, D1278/P/3, D1347/acc.1603/box 2303].

1791-1801 house possibly occupied or managed by William Jennings, baker of CX, made executor and trustee of John Mosley senior 1776: any caretaker staff unknown. Complaint about his management made 1791 by Elizabeth Mosley, daughter of John 1 Mosley and wife of Joel Chew, asking him to supply inventory and accounts [GA GDR/B4/J/23, M27; GDR/326 August 1791].

SOME RESIDENTS OF STONEHOUSE TOWN AREA, 1558-1841

This list is a summary of research attempting to place some residents in properties in the modern Stonehouse town area between 1558 and 1841. This is only half of the old parish, which until 1894 included parts of Westrip, Cainscross and Ebley.

Much evidence is circumstantial and/or incomplete: the list offers starting points for further research. Please contact Gloucestershire Family History Society at https://gfhs.org.uk/, or https://www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/archives/ to follow GA references.

IDs may be uncertain, either because records have not been found, or because those examined so far offer too many options to make a choice. The list contains researched male residents, with their proposed links to properties in relation to available sources, deduced from context. Some wives (in bold) have individual entries. There will always have been additional unplaced tenants and lodgers, women and children living in these properties.

The main source is a series of manorial residents' lists, examined 1998 in https://research-information.bris.ac.uk/en/studentTheses/residence-and-kinship-in-a-clothing-community-stonehouse-1558-180/ This research has since been revised for the modern town area only, and extended to include the parish tithe award of 1839 and the 1841 census.
